EXPRESSING CULTURE THROUGH DANCE
CULTÚR A CHOThÚ LE RINCE

Sydney is the place to be in September 2023.

We are proud to announce that the Australian Irish Dancing Championships is returning to Sydney. Competitors and spectators alike will be immersed in a week-long festival of Ireland's dance, music and culture.

With over 1,200 dancers from all states of Australia, competing in solo and team events, renewing friendships, socialising and above all enjoying the spectacle of these Championships, we invite YOU to be part of what is truly a unique and memorable event.

With approximately 5 million dollars being injected into the State through bed stays, tourism, retail and hospitality and along with an estimated 1000+ spectators daily, we offer you this great opportunity to be involved in our 54th Australian Irish Dancing Championships.

Your sponsorship, advertising or in-kind support will ensure that the 2023 Australian Championships will be an exciting event, not only for our Irish dancing community but our international and interstate guests, intrastate Sydney and all attending.

In Brief

- The Australian Irish Dancing Association (AIDA Inc) is a voluntary not-for-profit organisation and relies on the support of the community to run this prestigious event.
- From Tuesday 26th September to Saturday 30th September 2023, the Quaycentre will host Australia's biggest Irish dancing event.
- It will attract 1,200 competitors from over 1,000 families from all over Australia, and an estimated 4,000 total attendees, including competitors from Sydney.
- These families will inject significant funds into the New South Wales economy during the Championships.
- The Championships will attract 1,000+ spectators each day.
- Australia's Irish dancing community is made up of diverse families who love their art form and are passionately supportive of those who support them.

In the following pages you will find information about the partnership and advertising opportunities that are available. We hope that your organisation can help support us in bringing this year's Championships to life.

As a valued partner of the Championships, your organisation will be promoted through its online presence globally, in print and on signage throughout the Championships.

We look forward to your involvement in this great event. Should you require any further information on the event or are seeking a sponsorship or advertising package tailored to you needs, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Partnerships & Advertising

The Australian Irish Dancing Association Inc. invites you to be involved in the 2023 Australian Irish Dancing Championships, offering you the unique opportunity to promote your business and support a dynamic, fast-growing and high-profile dance sport.

About us

Australia boasts almost 100 accredited Irish Dancing Schools in all States and Territories with over 1,500 registered dancers nationwide. The number of participants continues to grow and this energetic dance sport provides our youth with an opportunity to develop skills involving an extremely high level of physical fitness and to compete, not only at the local level, but also throughout Australia and overseas.

Capturing all the excitement of the international dance show hits Riverdance and Lord of the Dance, the Quaycentre will host five full days of world-class dancing when it presents the 54th Australian National Championships of Irish Dancing from Tuesday 26th September to Saturday 30th September 2023.

The Irish dance community is excited to come to Sydney and enjoy our hotels, restaurants, retailers, bus and taxi companies, local tourism, and not to mention bars and other leisure facilities all benefiting from the influx of visitors.
