AIDA Inc. Photography Policy

Any form of unauthorised photography which has the capability to capture a dancer's image whilst in motion, using electronic or manual means (e.g. mobile phone, standard camera, video camcorder, commercial film), with or without enhancement, is expressly forbidden.

The Australian Irish Dancing Association (AIDA Inc.) reserves the right to appoint an official photographer for both the Australian International Oireachtas and the National Championships. The live feed provider will be 'Feis TV' who will video competitors, competitions and prize giving ceremonies. Such photographs and videos may be subsequently used for the marketing and promotional purposes of AIDA Inc. including the publication of such photographs on the official website http://www.irishdancing.org.au/ and the AIDA Inc. social media channels. AIDA Inc. may also appoint other agents during the course of the Championships for special promotional projects and reserves the right to permit suitably accredited photo-journalists from local newspapers and television stations to take photographs of the event on a case by case basis.

Please note: Other than the photographs taken by persons as set out in the above any other photographs may only be taken at the prize giving ceremonies each day and may only be taken for personal use. All photographs captured may not be sold, subject to any form of payment, or used for commercial purposes. Photographs may not be published or posted on any website or used in any publication without the express written permission of AIDA Inc.

Professional Photography Equipment will not be permitted inside the competition rooms with the exception of individuals that have a valid AIDA Inc. photo pass issued and authorised by AIDA Inc. Attendees are not allowed to bring zoom lenses greater than 70mm inside the dance events, and no individuals will be granted access to take photographs on or near the stage during the competitions.

AIDA Inc. reserves the right to remove any person found to be ignoring or failing to comply with these rules from the event.
